TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Jan. 2021- Present

Instructor, CEP 694 | Interventions for Academic Skills | University at Buffalo. This course is designed to provide school psychologists-in-training with a variety of methods for assessing the academic performance of students. Instruction includes practice with advanced techniques in direct and norm-referenced academic assessment for use in intervention planning and progress monitoring, and a wide range of research-based intervention procedures to address students' academic skills deficits. Students will also work with a supervising school psychologist to identify a student in need of academic intervention and will work with the student to progress through the intervention process (i.e., assessment, intervention, progress monitoring, etc.). The culmination of this project will be a case study presented by students in class, and a formal intervention report.

Aug. 2020- Present

Instructor, CEP 650 | Behavioral Therapy in Children and Adolescents | University at Buffalo. This course is designed to increase students understanding of the therapeutic strategies and practices rooted in behavioral theory (primarily related to applied behavior analysis) and the behavioral principles that underlie individual differences in the assessment and treatment of clinically relevant disorders and socially significant problems. The course explores three major points of focus. First, to increase students' knowledge of the theoretical foundations of ABA. Second, to introduce students to the functional assessment of behavior problems, including various methods for conducting functional assessments and to use assessment data to design intervention plans. Students will also be introduced to interventions and other techniques that can be used to treat challenging behaviors. Lastly, to provide students with an opportunity to become familiar with problem-solving at the system-levels.

- Aug. 2020- Present Instructor, CEP 601B |Advanced Practicum| University at Buffalo. A two-semester supervised field placement course for advanced doctoral students in Counseling Psychology and School Psychology engaging in clinical activities at external sites. The course is designed to integrate applied skills acquired in previous and current courses such as, academic and behavioral assessment and intervention, counseling, ethics and law, and others, and to build fluency with professional skills expected of health service psychologists-in-training. Students will gain experience in delivering counseling, psychological assessment, primary and secondary psychoeducational and mental health interventions, and other clinical functions to individuals who are experiencing mental illness, developmental, social, and/or academic difficulties, within a range of settings such as: community, state, and VA hospitals; college counseling centers; schools; mental health agencies; or other approved clinical settings.
- May 2019- Aug. 2019 Teaching Assistant, SPSY 7041 | Ethics| University of Cincinnati. Duties included providing ongoing feedback to students to further develop their competency in ethics.
- May – Aug. 2017 & 2019 Teaching Assistant, SPSY 7040| Child Development| University of Cincinnati. Duties included assisting class facilitator in grading assignments throughout the semester and responding to students' emails concerning assignments and grades.
- Aug. 2016- Aug. 2017 Teaching Assistant, SPSY 7042 |Cultural Diversity| University of Cincinnati. Duties included assisting class facilitator in increasing students' cultural competency through grading and student support.

APPLIED EXPERIENCES

- Aug. 2019- July 2020 Doctoral Intern in Health Psychology. Devereux, Center for Effective Schools, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Partner with stakeholders in a range of child-serving settings to solve diverse problems at the system and individual level, deliver classroom consultation and coaching to individual teachers and teaching teams, as well as consultation and training to school practitioners and multidisciplinary teams related to the design, implementation, and evaluation of practices within a multi-tiered framework for supporting behavior and mental health. In addition, conduct functional behavior assessments to design individualize, function-based supports for students.

- Aug. 2017- May 2018 Early Intervention and Behavioral Intervention. Cincinnati Children's Hospital, Division of Developmental Behavioral Pediatrics, Cincinnati, Ohio. Provided intensive programming based on Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) for six male preschool children with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD).
- Sep. 2016- May 2017 School Psychology Practicum Student. Learning Center at North Norwood, Cincinnati, Ohio. 400+ hours of pre-internship supervised experience containing consultation with teachers to address classroom concerns, and implementation of three interventions for students with academic concerns including: using repeated readings to increase words read correctly for junior high school students, applying an interdependent group contingency to increasing total words written with high school students; and lastly, used detect, practice, repair to increase digit correct per minute for junior high students. In addition, monitored progress and treatment adherence for interventions and participated on the evaluation/behavioral team.
- Sep. 2016-Mar. 2017 Early Intervention Practicum Student. Arlitt Center for Education, Research and Sustainability, Cincinnati, Ohio. Conducted direct observations of teacher, classroom, and student variables to ensure behavioral supports were appropriate. Collaborated with the teachers to make data-based decisions regarding students who needed supports using a multi-tiered system of supports (MTSS), as well as designed and implemented an intervention targeting social skills and appropriate behaviors.
- Oct. 2015-May 2016 Literacy Tutor. Westwood Elementary, Cincinnati, Ohio. Held small group tutoring sessions three time per week with kindergarten and 1st grade students using a Peer Assisted Literacy Strategies Curriculum. In addition, weekly progress of students was evaluated using DIBELS and student's data was used to determine decisions.

RELEVANT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Aug. 2017- May 2019 Graduate Assistant. Hughes STEM High School, Cincinnati, Ohio. Provided academic and behavioral supports to Black male students, collaborated with faculty on the Positive Behavioral Intervention and Support (PBIS) team as well as the Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT) to provide school-wide multi-tiered systems of supports to address behavioral issues, discipline infractions, and positive school climate. In addition, served as a supervisor for school psychology graduate students during implementation of counseling practicum experience.

- May 2018- Aug. 2018 Site Coordinator. Breakthrough Cincinnati, Cincinnati, Ohio. Collaborated with the program director to provide leadership for all staff, experience included directing, and supervising volunteers and teaching fellows, as well as organizing and delivering professional development through trainings and workshops for all personal.
- July 2016-Dec. 2018 Community Behavior Specialist. Applied Behavior Services, Cincinnati, Ohio. Use evidence-based interventions to provide supports and services to consumers to increase positive/prosocial skills and behaviors including but not limited to social skills, coping strategies, and daily living skills. In addition, supports and services are provided to consumers to decrease problematic behaviors such as negative peer interactions, juvenile offending, and suicidal conduct.
